THE STUDIES OF FRESH- MAN YEAR

All candidates for the A.B., Litt.B., and B.S. degrees are required to have 16 exercises per week during Freshman year, divided as follows:

For the A.B. degree:

Latin .....	4
Greek .....	4
Mathematics .....	4
English .....	2
French or German.....	2

The modern language which was offered for admission is continued through the year. But if a candidate for the A.B. degree has passed the entrance examination in French B or German B, he may either take the more advanced course, corresponding to Sophomore work, or he may take the regular Freshman work (French 13 or German 13), or he may begin the other Modern Language.

Every such student must notify the Registrar of his choice on Friday, September 20th.

For the B.S. or Litt.B. degree:

Latin .....	4
Mathematics .....	4
English .....	2

and two of the three subjects, French, German, Physics, each 3 exercises per week. Those who offered French A and German A for admission must take Physics and either French or German, as they prefer. The choice must be announced to the Registrar on Friday, September 20th. Those who offered Physics and a Modern Language for admission continue the Modern Language offered and begin the study of the other. Those who offered Chemistry and a Modern Language take Physics and either continue the language offered or begin the other. Such students must inform the Registrar of their choice on Friday, September 20th.

Candidates for the C.E. degree have 17 exercises per week, as follows:

Mathematics . . . . .	4
Chemistry . . . . .	3
Graphics . . . . .	2
English . . . . .	2

and two of the three subjects, French, German, Physics, each 3 exercises per week. Physics is required of all who did not offer it for entrance, and the Modern Language offered for admission is continued. Those who offered Physics for entrance take both Modern Languages, continuing one and beginning the other. Those who offered Latin instead of French or German must consult the Registrar on Friday, September 20th.

GERMAN

GERMAN II.

Divisions will be posted in the west end of Dickinson Hall and text books announced later.

GERMAN I3.

The lists of the different divisions, with a statement as to time and place of their meeting, will be posted Thursday afternoon in the west entry of Dickinson.

The students should provide themselves with the following two books, which can be secured at the University Store:

Ebner - Eschenbach: Die Freiherren von Gemperlein.

Mosher: Willkommen in Deutschland.

Besides, they will need some German-English dictionary, e. g., Adler's, Cassell's, Heath's, Hinds', or Whitney's; and some German grammar, either Bierwirth's or Joynes-Meissoner's or Thomas's.

For first lesson, on Friday, September 20th, prepare: Ebner-Eschenbach: Die Freiherren von Gemperlein, p. 1, line 1, to p. 3, line 28.

CHEMISTRY

All C.E. Freshmen are required to take Chemistry whether they have offered it for entrance or not. No other Freshmen may take Chemistry.

The class will meet for the first lecture, Monday, September 23d, at 11 o'clock, in room 12, Chemical Laboratory, southeast corner Nassau and Washington streets, Washington street entrance, second floor. A note book must be brought to this lecture.

The text book used in connection with the lectures is Newell's Descriptive Chemistry. The class will meet on Mondays and Tuesdays of each week for lectures and will be quizzed in divisions one hour per week. The quiz divisions and schedule will be announced later.

PHYSICS

All Litt.B., B.S., and C.E. Freshmen who did not offer Physics for entrance will report for first lecture on Monday, September 23d, in room 23, School of Science, to Prof. McClenahan. C.E. men will report at 10 a. m.; all others at 11 a. m. Text book: Millikan and Gale.

UNIVERSITY BILLS

All University expenses, including board, must be paid in advance to the Treasurer of the University.

Students may take their meals at any house approved by the Curator; with the exception of Freshmen, all of whom are required to board at the University Dining Halls.

Students are required to call at the Treasurer's office in the course of the first ten days of each term, and to give information as to their place of boarding, etc. so that their bills can be made out. All bills must be paid within the first four weeks of the term. Failure to comply with this rule will deprive the student of the privileges of the University until payment is made, unless excused by special vote of the Faculty.
